The Alcoholic Foundation is our sole agency of its kind. We have agreed that all business engagements touching on our alcoholic work shall have the approval of its trustees. People who state they represent The Alcoholic Foundation should be asked for credentials and if unsatisfactory, these ought to be checked with the Foundation at once. We welcome inquiry by scientific, medical and religious societies.

This volume is published by the Works Publishing Company, organized and financed mostly by small subscriptions by our members. This company donates the customary royalty from each copy of ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS to The Alcoholic Foundation.

Page 409. Oct. 6, 1962.

Bill's 28th birthday.

Myron had gotten Dr. Earle Marsh to come (from California) as a Speaker. -- and he & Bill and Myron and I had lived together and that's when Bill wrote his my book.

Sam Shiemater was also to be a speaker.
He was quite ill at the time, and after he had spoken, he went up to his room (in the hotel) to take oxygen -- which he had in his room.

-- but -- the oxygen tank wouldn't work properly, and Sam nearly died.

They got word to Bill (near the end of the evening) -- and Bill got Dr. Earle and Myron & myself -- and Joe -- and we all were very concerned -- Dr. Earle got him rushed to hospital, -- and stayed beside him all night.

stayed with Bill & Joe (at their request) until Sam was out of danger --

Then Myron & I went to see Sam early the next morning (Sunday) -- and Bill he and Helen signed my book then -- (The bottom of the last page of the book, 409) of
